

Thomas Perry, Project Executive

As a proven leader on Skanska's complex, logistically challenging cultural, commercial and higher education projects, Project Executive Tom Perry uses his 33 years of experience to provide direct, hands-on management for our project team. Not only does Tom treat all project stakeholders as valued partners and maintains transparent communication to build a diverse, collaborative, multi-disciplinary team on his projects, he brings his broad experience and ability to streamline existing operations to overcome obstacles with effective and affordable solutions to a project.

Matthew Krenek, Sr. Project Manager

With over 19 years of construction experience, Matt Krenek is a Senior Project Manager at Skanska and has been involved with some of the firm's most sophisticated projects undertaken in the Metro Region (NJ/NY). Having extensive experience with higher education, sports stadiums, cultural, life sciences, transportation, bridges and commercial projects, Matt's natural leadership ability during his time at Skanska has established his sterling reputation in the construction industry.
