

J. Jarett Messina, AIA, LEED AP

Sr. Project Manager

Princeton University

Jarett Messina is a Registered Architect working as a Senior Project Manager for the Office of Capital Projects at Princeton University. He focuses on Campus Life projects for the University and most recently, has been working on the New University Health Services Building and the Class of 1986 Fitness and Wellness Center.