11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (Salon C)	SESSION I: Inspecting, Cleaning, and Rehabilitating Piping Infrastructure The presentation reinforces the belief that you cannot manage what you cannot measure, but that you can in fact measure what you may not think is easily accessible! There are many tools available to a campus facility's O&M team to establish a baseline condition assessment of the campus's underground and in-building / in-wall utility infrastructure, all of which are subject to a steadily changing environment. These assessments often are one of the first steps to developing a risk-based profile to help prioritize, plan, and budget for the eventual remediation of this infrastructure. This presentation will touch on the suite of tools that are available to the facilities teams (and their subcontractors) to accomplish this task in four key areas – inspection, cleaning, condition assessment, and remediation. Presenters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alex Olson Director, Infrastructure Services Progressive Pipeline Management • Walt Molishus Director of Trades Manager University of Pennsylvania
12:00 PM – 01:15 PM (Dining Room)	Lunch
01:30 PM – 02:30 PM (Salon C)	SESSION II: Case Study: Repositioning Underutilized Assets to Increase Long-Term Value In higher education, a thoughtful approach to asset optimization can create institutional resilience, energize campus life, and ensure long-term institutional success. Realizing these goals requires careful planning and strategic application of institutional assets. How does this process work, and what are the best practices for planning and designing for the future? This panel will use multiple projects across scale, complexity, completion status, institution type, budget, building typology, institutional goals, and more to explore how underutilized existing campus assets can be reinvigorated and reimagined for maximum impact increasing long-term value. By facilitating student engagement in the planning and design process, utilizing a human-centric approach to design to serve student needs and create flexible, multimodal spaces, facilities can become future-
